We have beautiful cats of colour and pride to us they stand out but not those they prey

We have amazing bears of size and fright to us they stand out when their meals come their way

We have cuddly koalas with a teddy bear look to us they stand out but not on the highway

We have large gorillas with a muscular outfit to us they stand out when we need their clay

We have giant whales with a majestic look to us they stand out when their meat is pay

We have greedy humans with money and wealth to us they stand out because it's always their way
