

Outside the Square

To those who rule we all must ask please think outside the square for us to stay here

It's humans that crowd the earth and it won't be long before we go up like a bong

They won't more growth to create more jobs this spreads more money for what they call honey

The creation of money is a long slow story turning materials to granite to destroy our planet

